The year 1938-39 at Lees-McRae has been marked with progress. A large student body, Reid and Cannon Cottages, new faculty homes are material evidences of our growth. More significant than the physical development is the spirit of the students who throughout the year have expressed their appreciation for those deep intangible things which make the real life of a campus—loyalty to teams, interest in the achievement of groups and individuals, mutual sympathies, respect for the good, and love of truth. It is this spirit which will give lasting value to the pages of this book and will make '38-'39 live forever on the silver screen of our memories.

The spotlight of the ONTARGO of 1939 rests upon the stars of the production, familiarly known on the lot as the Seniors. Having made their first appearance only last year they have risen steadily to fame, reaching what they believe is the zenith of their careers in the leading roles of the 1939 production. Critics of the screen, however, feel that this production is only an indication of a brilliant future for the cast and predict a lasting and greater fame for the Garbos, Chaplins, Carrolls, and Boyers of the ONTAROGA of 1939.

September 14, 1939, over two hundred aspiring young artists filled the L. M. C. Studios. Visions of fame and names in lights filled their heads. Weeks passed, weeks of screen tests, gruelling rehearsals, auditions under the direction of the stars and directors. Gradually the newcomers were cast, they learned their cues, their exits and their entrances—and the show was on.

As the Supporting Cast they have filled their roles well, and now as the 1939 production comes to an end the 1940 stars are born.

... Shadows across life's sunny ways.

GLEE CLUB AND CHOIR

MISS VIRGINIA MARTIN-----Director

The Glee Club has been outstanding this year, both in numbers and in achievement. Besides furnishing music for special occasions, this group presented two cantatas, one at Christmas and one at Easter. At the invitation of WJHL, the broadcasting station of Johnson City, Tenn., the Glee Club broadcasted two programs, one of which was the Easter Cantata given on the Sunday before Easter.

A special division of the Glee Club is the Choir, which makes a special study of religious music and serves as the choir of the Banner Elk Presbyterian Church every Sunday morning.

THE SEASON

Won one, tied one, and lost five, paints a darker picture of the Lees-McRae football season than the Bobcats deserved. L. M. C. had reason to be proud of a hard-fighting squad, a squad which upheld the college ideal of sportsmanship.

The Bobcats opened the season by playing Boiling Springs in Gaffney, S. C. They were defeated 19-6 in a surprise upset by a more experienced team. Belmont Abbey was the next foe for the Bobcats. The Crusaders could score only two points in the entire first half, and the green and gold line held again and again when the Crusaders seemed certain of scoring. Abbey won 14-0.

On Homecoming Day the Bobcats battled their ancient rivals, Mars Hill, to a 6-6 tie before a large crowd of visitors and the student body. Weddington scored for Lees-McRae in the first period.

Lees-McRae next downed the invading Wingate team 6-0, when Caton, tackle, blocked a punt and dashed over for L. M. C.'s score.

Campbell College and Lees-McRae clashed for the first time in three years on November 5. Campbell scored their lone touchdown in the last five minutes, making the final count 6-0 in their favor. A powerful Davidson "B" team defeated the Bobcats 32-0 at Davidson on Armistice Day. The season ended with a heart-breaking defeat, when the Bobcats were beaten 19-0 by Brevard—an exact reversal of the score the previous year.

Such players as Weddington, John Stevens, Captain Miller, Chilton Deans, Clyde Brooks, and Paul Thompson will be sorely missed next year. Most of the responsibility will fall on the shoulders of Ferebee, Caton, Barber, Legard, Davis, and Callahan. Eight games have been scheduled already for the coming year.

Boys' Basket-ball

THE SQUAD

DANIELS, Captain, Forward; ISAACS, Forward; FEREBEE, Guard; FITE, Center; HINSON, Guard; BEAN, Guard; SHELOR, Guard; ARMBRUSTER, Forward; HORTON, Forward; LACEY, Forward; MCKINNEY, Guard.

Paced by Hoy Isaacs, high score man with 191 points, and Captain Bruce Daniels, who was second high scorer with 116, the Lees-McRae basket-ball squad added to the fame of their Alma Mater and proved to be a real worry for the other teams in the conference this season. They won 10, lost 6, and tied 1. Perhaps the highlight of the season came when they upset Abbey's undefeated five on February 2.

The starting combination of Daniels, Isaacs, Fite, Bean, and Hinson saw plenty of action, as did such players as Ferebee, Shelor and Van Pelt.

Captain Daniels, S. B. Lacy, and Hugh McKinney will be lost by graduation this year, but Lees-McRae will be fortunate in starting next season with Isaacs, Bean, Hinson, Shelor, Horton and Armbruster.

THE SQUAD

McEWEN, Captain, Center; POWELL, Forward; ROSS, Forward; WOODSIDE, Forward; HARDIN, Guard; BARNES, Guard; YELTON, Guard; LYDAY, Forward; STURGILL, Center; IRELAND, Guard; THOMAS, Guard; HURT, Center.

Under the able coaching of Miss Blake, girls' basket-ball was revived this year with a peppy, fighting team that added glory to Lees-McRae's basket-ball record. Although the girls did not meet any college teams, they played high school and all-star teams whose records made them formidable foes and came through the season with no losses.

Next year's team will be lucky to have McEwen, high score player and captain of this year's team, as well as Powell, Woodside, Barnes, Hardin, and Yelton.

Lees-McRae's pugilistic representatives to the 1939 Golden Gloves Tournament held in Charlotte proved a number of things. These fighters possessed dynamite and knew how to use it. They battled their way through stiff competition, and though a few found that fate had left the "L" out of their glory, they did not let defeat down their scrappy Bobcat spirit.
